

If this so called "broadcast flag" will prevent people from copying content for personal use, it will not only destroy the idea of Fair use but will also hurt the broadcasters. Users will not be able to record one show while they watch another. Increasing revenue for both broadcasters. I think this portion of the DTV discussion should be dropped or discussed at a later time. This will be to detrimental to the public and the broadcasters.